ARRESTED AND PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Is The Oldest Pioneer In Dane County, Serving Second Term And Seeks Re-Election This Coming Fall.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Aug. 14.—Register of Deeds George W. Stoner, the oldest living pioneer was arrested this morning on the charge of having poisoned some twenty odd dogs of Madison's aristocracy. When arraigned in court he entered a plea of not guilty. The complainants claim to have positive proof of their assertions and Mr. Stoner will have to stand trial.

[Noted Character.]
Stoner has been register of deeds for the past four years and is one of the candidates for renomination at the September primaries on the republican ticket. He is one of the noted characters of southern Wisconsin and in making his campaign he has walked over every road in the county and visited personally every voter in the county.

Hundreds of Miles.
During the past four years he has walked many hundred miles. While advanced in years he has still much of the vigor of a younger man and his election four years ago in the face of strong opposition came as a surprise to everyone.

THOUGHT HE WAS IN MINNEAPOLIS

AGED MAN HEARD BAND PLAY AND DISEMBARKED.

MIND WAS ON LONG JOURNEY

And H. B. Watkins of Elmira, New York, Aged 71 Years, Did Not Recover Bearings Until Today.

When the Chicago special for Minneapolis via the North-Western arrived here yesterday morning and stopped for over a half hour an aged passenger from Elmira, New York, hearing the music of Reichert's band and supposing that he had reached his destination in the city of the lakes, disembarked and looked anxiously about for the person whom he had expected to greet him at the depot. Finally he wandered down the tracks and several hours later striking off toward Ravine street he came to a halt in the backyard of Mrs. Sarah A. Bull's premises at No. 22. Presently, murmuring aloud to himself, he hung his coat on a nail on the back porch and sat down. Mrs. Bull, who was somewhat frightened, but during an interval in which she failed to watch the old man he went on his way again. Last night about nine o'clock Officer Brown picked up the wanderer and brought him to the station and early this morning E. G. Field, a brother of Mrs. Bull, appeared on the scene with the coat. The pockets contained a number of letters and other miscellaneous articles, an excursion ticket to Minneapolis and return, and a large placard on which was scrawled in large letters the name H. B. Watkins.

His Mind Wandered
"Why my son and my daughters will know all about me," said the old gentleman this morning when questioned in a kindly way by City Marshal Appleby. "For a long time he was unable to grasp the idea that he was not in Minneapolis. At length, however, when the coat was shown him and the circumstances related, he was able to rescue himself from the mental confusion into which he had been plunged and reason quite clearly. 'I must have been a little off,' he said. 'I can remember nothing since leaving Chicago. Had no sleep all the way there—everybody was singing and having such a good time. No! I do not think I touched any liquor. My son is a jeweler in Harmony, Minnesota, and a friend of his was to meet me in the depot at Minneapolis. As we did not know one another I was to have a large placard bearing my name on my grip. The grip has gone on I suppose, but I have the checks. Yes, my daughters in Elmira wanted me to take this little trip.'"

JOHNNY NELSON CHOSEN AS VACANCY CONGRESSMAN

Second Congressional District Nominates Successor To The Late Congressman Adams This Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Aug. 14.—The second Wisconsin district republican congressional convention this afternoon met here and nominated John M. Nelson of Madison as the party candidate for the unexpired term of the late H. C. Adams. Mr. Nelson will be elected September 4, the day of the primary election, on which day the special election to fill the vacancy has been called by Governor Davidson. This district is overwhelmingly republican. Mr. Nelson's republican opponent for the short term was M. S. Dudgeon of Madison. He made a remarkably successful campaign in his home county, but had not enough time to effectively organize in the other five counties of the district, in which Mr. Nelson had been working for several months. The vote in the convention today was overwhelming in favor of Nelson. Nelson and Dudgeon are candidates for the republican nomination at the primary election for the nomination for the full term. And the friends of Dudgeon confidently assert that their man will win. Should this be the result, Mr. Nelson will have only one short term of service in the house of representatives. Mr. Nelson and his friends, however, declare that the special election contest in which their man was a winner will provide a loaded wagon upon which their candidate will be sent to Washington for the customary two full terms that are accorded republican congressmen usually in this state. At the convention today features were resolutions lauding the services of the late Congressman Adams in connection with the meat inspection, pure food and agricultural college appropriation bills, and also a strong speech of acceptance by Mr. Nelson.

CHICAGO GRAND ARMY POST HERE

ARRIVED ON SPECIAL AT 11:45 MONDAY MORNING.
RECEPTION AT THE DEPOT

Reichert's Super Band, Played Program of Five Pieces, Followed by Songs and Cheers.
Sixty-five erect, active, and handsome young men who were engaged in a great war some forty odd years ago, but on whom the years seemed to have left no trace save the silver lining, disembarked at the North-Western depot Monday a. m. and made a rush for Comrade C. S. Jackman and a large delegation of Janesville citizens who had turned out to welcome them. A moment later they had their band—a musical organization of 23 pieces, including two bugles and three snare drums under the direction of Leader Reichert—out on the platform and while the lively quick-steps were being played they went through the grand right and left, danced jigs, jollied everyone who approached them, and gave a continuous demonstration of the fact that they were out on a holiday, and that they wanted everybody to know it.

Everybody Sang "Illinois" In honor of the advent of Columbia Post No. 706, Department of Illinois, Grand Army of the Republic, the depot had been trimmed with bunting and flags. For the veterans had sent word ahead to Mr. Jackman that they proposed to stop over for twenty minutes or a half hour in Janesville while on their way to the national convention in Minneapolis and that they proposed to "make things lively while they staid." The super band, playing a program of five pieces, Commander H. G. Purlington passed a quiet word to the porter and that dusky individual presently emerged with a mammoth bouquet of red roses and presented one to each of the ladies present. Closely on his heels followed a quartet of L. C.
Campbell, with an armful of small souvenir bottles of Green River whiskey. "When the roses are gone this will stay by you," he said, as he bowed low and tenderly his gifts. Commander O. B. Knight then leaped upon the steps leading to the waiting-room and led the song "Illinois" in a clear and mellow tenor, the entire audience as well as the delegation of visitors joining in the chorus. After that General Agent Harry Gross, who was in charge of the excursion, warded the veterans that it was time to resume the journey, the stop-over having lasted more than thirty minutes, instead of twenty; three cheers were given for C. S. Jackman and three more for Janesville; the band played "Auld Lang Syne"; the visitors hastened aboard the cars; and the train pulled out amid the waving of many handkerchiefs and a chorus of farewells.

Special of Five Cars.
Columbia Post had five coaches on the train including buffet and observation cars. The members were attired in natty uniforms, and caps in lieu of the regulation slouch hats.
Their wives and families and friends numbering fifty accompanied them.
Besides the officers mentioned Senior Vice Commander J. C. Ivey, Junior Vice Commander N. B. Lewis, and Adjutant Henry Stephens were in the party. Comrade Charles A. Allen, whose dome of thought is as bright and shiny as a billiard ball, lifted his cap from time to time to display a big plaster pasted on this improvised billboard and advertising the excursion. Ice cream was served on the train at the direction of Mr. Jackman. Among the Janesville people present at the impromptu reception were: Past State Department Commander, Phylis Norcross and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. S.
Jackman, P. J. Mount, Geo. D. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wheeler, Mrs. A. J. Harris, George McKay, Miss Elizabeth McKee, Fred Clemons, V. P. Richardson, Fred Sheldon, cia Jackman, and Charles Reynolds.

Homestead Once
More.
Utters' Corners, August 12.—Volney Grant of Kalkaska, Michigan, and M.
P. Brant of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, spent Sunday on the old homestead where they were born and grew to manhood.
The farm is now owned by B. W.
Farnsworth, who took great pleasure in showing these two friends of his boyhood days the old farm where they had lived so many years and whom he had not met for 38 years. Volney is foreman of the Bell Telephone company. He was a member of the 13th Wisconsin regiment and one thing that called him here was to attend the reunion of his regiment at Janesville this week. He expects his wife to join him at Whitewater Tuesday.
W. P. is an engineer on the railroad, a position he has held for 35 years, his run being from Cedar Rapids, Ia., to Rock Island, Ill., and back each day. He contemplates changing his home from Cedar Rapids to Hemet, Riverside county, California, in the near future.

Saturday, August 7, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. Magoon.
Sunday, Aug. 8, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark were made happy by the arrival of a little son at their home.

an extended visit at the home of her son at Madison.

the home of her brother, Jason Roe at Millard last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan Taft and family and Mrs. Eneline Smith of Whitewater, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hull one day last week. Mrs. Smith remained for a more extended visit with her sis-

INDIANS AT STATE FAIR

A Village of Wisconsin Red Men to Be a Unique Feature.
One of the most interesting and instructive features of the Wisconsin state fair, to be held in Milwaukee, September 10-14, will be a model Indian village, composed of Indians from various Wisconsin reservations.
This exhibit is being arranged for at great expense and under the supervision of a well-known ethnologist, and will undoubtedly be the best effort ever made in Wisconsin to show the Indian to advantage and illustrate his manner of living, games, councils and occupations.
The Indian village will occupy a large portion of the beautiful grove in the southwestern section of the fair grounds, and will be a free feature for all who attend the fair. There will be a special program of Indian events for noon days of the fair. The committee in charge of the exhibit proposes to show the Indian as he might have been found in the wilds of Wisconsin one hundred years ago.

Many of the most striking types of Indian men have been secured for the exhibit, and with them will come their squaws and papooses. They will live in their Indian tepees, the babies will be rocked in cradleboards suspended from the trees and the squaws will be busily engaged in making Indian baskets, stringing beads and following their usual daily routine work.
The Indians will be encamped a few days prior to the opening of the fair and be a leading feature the entire week.
Special reduced railroad rates of one fare for the round trip have been announced for state fair week.

MAGNIFICENT SPECTACLE

The Field of the Cloth of Gold Regal-ly Depicted by Ringling Brothers.
Ringling Brothers' world's greatest shows lead their huge program this year with a magnificent, dramatic spectacle, "The Field of the Cloth of Gold," involving a cast of 1,200 characters, a ballet of 200 and a singing chorus of 200. More than 2,500 costumes, designed and made by Parisian artists of world-wide fame, are worn, and the music, composed especially for this grand production, is rendered by a selected band of fifty soloists. The musical embellishment is peculiarly effective and permeates the entire action. Never in the history of the circus has there been offered to the public a spectacle of the magnitude, originality and fascinating feature of this stupendous performance. No circus in existence could afford the fabulous expenditure of money invested by the Ringling Brothers in this radiant and massive spectacle. Bejeweled and emperured royalty; obsequious servitors gaily garbed; ecclesiastics, sparkling with precious insignia of rank, mounted knights, with shields and helmets inlaid with gold and precious stones; monks, seminarians and other lowly children of church and cloister; working ladies in daintily fashioned fabrics of glistening sheen; nobles of blue-blooded bearing and dress, soldiers, grim and glittering in armor of steel; singing maidens, dancing girls with garlands, pilgrims, vassals, knights, swordsmen and helmet bearers, and countless other pictorial types of the period intermingled ka-leidoscopically in this massive and enthralling scene of charming splendors. The most exciting of ancient sports, including jousting tilts, sword combats, sparring exercises, equestrian exploits, athletic competitions and other thrilling pastimes are reproduced in the splendid tournament.
A horse ballet is introduced to illustrate the wonderful equine education of three squadrons of the highest bred animals in the world. The marching pageant is the most magnificent and breathtakingly beautiful professional display ever seen under canvas. The voluptuous luxury of mediaeval times is depicted in a ballet of diversitement in which 200 girl dancers appear. The enormous scope of stage room is taxed to the utmost by the brilliant gathering. Dancing girls flood the stage and gracefully glide through bewitching conceits of temporanean invention. The costumes are creations of art, fashioned by Parisian masters, and models of exquisite elegance and taste. No spectacle of modern times has been staged with the lavish disregard of expense, and with such overwhelming success, as this production by Ringling Brothers of "The Field of the Cloth of Gold."
The marvelous shows will exhibit here Friday, Aug. 31, and give two performances, afternoon at 2 o'clock and night at 8 o'clock.

Vibration of Vocal Chords.
It is, simply the vocal chords which vibrate, not the throat. In the lower notes the whole length and thickness of the vocal chords are used, the thin edges being employed for the highest notes. Thus in speaking for a minute or two there is sufficient vibration engendered in the throat, were its walls of a solid nature instead of soft and flexible, to shatter and destroy it. Every minute we speak the vocal chords vibrate from 20,000 to 40,000 times.

Rich Food Value Of Pabst Beer

Good Reason Why the Finest Bottled Beer Should Be in Every Home.
There is no beverage more healthful and none more satisfying and refreshing than good beer. That is why we say that Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, the choicest of all bottled beers, should be in every home where things to eat and drink are valued according to their purity, cleanliness and actual food strength. Before or with your meals it is appetizing and invigorating and at all times it is a cool, refreshing drink.
Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is the superior of all beers in cleanliness and purity and also in food value. This is because of the Pabst exclusive eight-day method of making malt. Malt is the soul and body of beer, and the richer the malt the more wholesome the beer. Malt is made from barley by a process of growth and perfect malt, Pabst eight-day malt, contains all the food elements of barley in predigested form.
Most brewers grow their malt in four days, but four-day malt is an unnatural development and necessarily inferior because in the rushed growth of the grain its vital value is thrown off and lost. By scientific experiments and sixty years of practical brewing Pabst has proved that eight days are required to make perfect malt. This gives the barley slow growth and the food value of the grain is retained in Pabst eight-day malt. That is why Pabst Beer is so nourishing and strengthening.

WORK HAS COMMENCED ON THAT SIX-FOOT CULVERT

Through the Big Washington Street Washout—Water Pipes Have Also Been Connected.
Under the direction of J. H. Watson the work of constructing the six-foot culvert through the Washington street washout was commenced today. Yesterday the Janesville Water Co. carried a temporary pipe across the ravine so that the residents of the territory north of there are once more supplied with city water. No similar connections, however, have been made by the Gas Co. and the inhabitants of the district who have been using this form of illuminant will in all likelihood be compelled to resort to the kerosene lamp substitutes for some time to come. On Monday next the city council will open the bids for grading and filling the big hole. It is thought that at least three local firms will be heard from on this occasion.

MANIAC INJURES SEVEN MEN

Madman Shoots and Stabs Train Employes, and Others at Sparta, Wis.
Sparta, Wis., Aug. 14.—Seven men were seriously injured, two probably fatally, in a shooting and a stabbing affray Monday on a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train here. Louis Feltz, who said he lived at Milwaukee, apparently becoming demented after leaving a parlor car, where he had been the object of comment on account of his unkempt appearance, drew a knife and attacked the conductor. A struggle followed during which the men were injured.
Feltz boarded the train at La Crosse to go to Milwaukee. When he attacked Conductor Cunningham, Brakeman Johnson went to the aid of Cunningham. Feltz was pressing these men so hard that Brakeman Christianson went to their assistance. As the train stopped at Sparta, Feltz jumped from the car. An encounter with the marshal of the village followed and Feltz was arrested.

"A prudent man does not make the goat his gardener," nor does a wise merchant rely upon poster-campaigns in his advertising. There are many kinds of "publicity" which are about as valuable as a goat would be in the role of gardener.

THE FREE ALCOHOL LAW
In the latest issue of "The Manufacturers' Record" misgivings are expressed relative to the effect of changes made in the free alcohol law before its final passage. As originally drawn and as approved by the House of Representatives, the measure provided that the process of denaturing should be conducted "before withdrawal from the bonded warehouse." In the Senate an amendment was adopted which requires denaturing in "specially designated" warehouses. Although "The Manufacturers' Record" has the good sense to refrain from hasty conclusions, it is evidently disturbed by the "possibility" that the Senate's action will serve to restrict the number both of the distilleries which will manufacture alcohol for industrial purposes and of the places where it will be denatured. In other words, it fears that a monopoly will be created and that there will be no such reduction in price as the public expects.

Perhaps the phraseology of the bill as passed by the house is open to the objection that it is obscure and indefinite. Since there was no specific direction that denaturing should be conducted at any and every bonded warehouse, there is some difficulty in determining just what was intended. Some modification of the language, therefore, was apparently needed. There is not, however, the slightest uncertainty about the purpose of the chief advocates of the bill. They hoped that the country might, sooner or later, have a supply of untaxed alcohol which, if not absolutely unlimited, should be so abundant that it could and would compete with kerosene and gasoline.

If it is discovered, after a thorough trial of its workings, that the law does not realize this expectation, it is safe to say that a demand will be made upon congress for legislation that will give the country what it wants. We are not convinced that there was any mischievous attempt to thwart the people in this matter, but if there was the people will eventually triumph.

Nevertheless, it will not do to ignore the fact that the United States is about to make a colossal experiment. The venture has been made with success abroad, and it should be successful here, but there is everything in beginning right. Not for many years has the commissioner of internal revenue been called upon to assume such responsibilities as have now been imposed on him by congress. Elaborate and ingenious efforts to defraud the government will unquestionably be made, and the more thoroughly these are anticipated and guarded against the smaller will be the treasury's loss. The utmost caution is required in putting into effect the new law, and it is fortunate that large discretionary power is lodged with the commissioner and the secretary of the treasury. If the exercise of this power should involve a little delay at the outset, we are sure that all right minded persons, including the constituency which "The Manufacturers' Record" aims to serve, would submit with patience. The manifestation of any other spirit would be a poor compensation for the boon which ultimately, and we believe at no distant day, they are to enjoy.

ALL IN THE MIND
Some brilliant editor of an exchange has evolved the following: "Thirteen is considered an unlucky number, but did you ever notice that there are thirteen stars on a quarter, that there are thirteen letters in the 'E pluribus Unum,' thirteen spears in the left claw of the eagle and thirteen leaves on the sprig in the right claw of the eagle. The same is the case with the half dollar and yet people seem to hang onto their halves and quarters as long as possible. If you should be superstitious, however, and want to get rid of them we will accept them and give you credit on your account to boot."

In Thos. S. Nolan the Gazette feels that it advocates a candidate for congress that is worthy the consideration of every voter in the first congressional district. Mr. Nolan lives in the district, knows the wants and needs of the district and if nominated would probably be elected and would care for the interests of his constituents as though they were his own personal ones.

Senator La Follette will speak here on Saturday night. He is an eloquent orator, a polished and finished speaker and whether his views are your views or not it will be well worth your time to listen to the man talking for a doctrine of federal interference in state politics that he deplored two years ago.

The Milwaukee Journal is really the only Milwaukee paper that openly endorses Leinroot. The Free Press tries hard to be fair. The Sentinel is impartial and the News gives the facts as they exist, while the Wisconsin takes the Davidson side of the argument.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says the Congressman Cooper is flooding the mails with his campaign literature. Do you suppose he is using his personal frank for this purpose under the impression his retention in congress is government business?

When one crazy man can run amuck in a train-load of passengers, slash a dozen or so people and then finally resist all capture with fourteen bullets in him he is certainly making a new record for insane actions.

Gradually the evolution of state politics is such that it looks as though the toboggan slide had been nicely greased for some of those at the top to reach the bottom in double quick order.

Johnny Nelson won out in the second congressional district. He defeated a man named Dudgeon for nomination for the rest of the late Cully Adams' term. Now comes the primary and then who will win?

The two Beloit papers still continue their personal animosity struggle. When the battle clouds clear away it will be found that there is one disappointed man to say the least.

The Milwaukee Free Press colors all its news to suit the situation when talking of state politics. While it has heard the whisper from Marinette it finds it hard to be good.

Chicago sent a few specimens of Civil war veterans through Janesville on a special yesterday that were fit as kings to enter another four-year contest if need be.

Has a firebug struck Janesville or is it merely another form of the peek-a-boo waist bug that set fire to the building on Monday evening.

PRESS COMMENT.
Anticipation
Milwaukee Sentinel: Only twenty days more before the prodigal oyster will get its welcome.

Peaches Still Veiled
Chicago Tribune: In spite of popular prejudice, the Michigan and other peaches continue to wear those red peek-a-boo coverings.

No Shortage in Supply Impends Milwaukee Sentinel: Paragraphs throughout the country will be delighted to learn that three new brewery buildings are to be put up in Milwaukee.

Is the Letter "B"?
La Crosse Leader-Press: The man who can not afford a new hat frequently spends the price of a dozen new hats on a little thing with just as many letters as there are in "hat" and only one letter changed.

Half the Earth Enough—Now Milwaukee Journal: Mayor Becker can't accept an invitation to participate in the unveiling of a statue to George Washington in Budapest, Austro-Hungary. For the present he will illuminate on the western hemisphere.

Rest, After the Debauch
El Paso Herald: Philosophically reflecting, the Washington Star evolves the idea that political campaigns are worth all they cost if for no other reason than that they drive scandal mongering out of men's heads for awhile.

His "Hotweatheritis" Rochester Post-Express: Senator La Follette says that the only way for the republicans to beat Bryan in 1936 is to nominate Roosevelt. La Follette is suffering from hotweatheritis and ought to try the Fairbanks butter milk. Any good republican can beat Bryan.

La Crosse? Humph!
La Crosse Chronicle: Ringling Brothers' circus has been located again. This time it is going to Elkhart, Ind. It is hoped, however, it won't go that far as to do so may spoil the annual stories about the headquarters being removed to La Crosse.

Argument for Free Trade Sheboygan Journal: Sir Thomas Lipton's silver cup, donated as a trophy to the Boston Yacht club, must pay $450 duty. A wise tariff law prevents the country from being flooded with cheap British yachting trophies donated by London tea merchants. Republican protectionists must tremble when they think what would be the result if yachting cups were admitted free.

All Depends on the Squeeze Exchange: A French scientific sharp, Dr. Le Bon, remarks that there is enough locked up potential energy in an American nickel, were the molecules to be separated, to run a railway train 25,000 miles long four times its length. Dr. John D. Rockefeller must have been demonstrating to those Parisians the capabilities of a nickel if properly squeezed.

The Peek-a-boo Bug Oshkosh Northwestern: The latest is the so-called peek-a-boo bug, which has a penchant for feeding on the tiny cases so alluring displayed by the network fabrics which cover female charms. Up in this part of the country, the peek-a-boo bug has not as yet put in an appearance. But according to all reports the same kind of work is being surreptitiously performed by masculine eyes, and the weavers of the peek-a-boo garments do not seem to object in the least.

Cure Your Painful Corns

Nothing More to Be Done Boston Globe: Daniel Drawbaugh of telephone fame has invented an artificial fuel that is better than coal and will cost only about one-half as much, and City Electrician Thompson of Richmond, Va., has invented an apparatus which will enable a person talking over the telephone to see the face and figure of the person to whom he is talking. Also a man over in Chelsea has solved the airship problem, and several inventors scattered through the United States have discovered the secret of perpetual motion.

The Servant Girl's Catechism
New York Tribune: Rural communities are afflicted with the servant maid problem. A newspaper in Horton, Kan., tells of the worries of the women of that place in securing maids. It asks applicants for employment ask these questions: 1. Have you any children? 2. Would you want me to do the washing? 3. What time would I have to get up in the morning? 4. Would I eat at the table with the family? 5. Could I receive my company in the parlor? 6. Would I get two afternoons off each week?

This Higher Education
Montello Express: Your modern high school boy is not considered full fledged unless he can stick a postage stamp cap on the back of his neck, adopt a stride that looks like a cross between an ape and a kangaroo, and say hello with a jerk and a rising inflection. We almost forgot to state he ought properly at times to wear his hands deep in his trouser-pockets or inserted in the tail of his coat. Add to this a bull dog pipe, and generous air of superior disdain to all mankind, set away to cool, then serve the lobster cold.

Simple English
Exchange: Professor Thomas R. Lounsbury, the noted grammarian of Yale, believes in simple English. He opposes those who would substitute for simple terms pedantic ones. Discussing this question he said: "There was little boy who began to keep a diary. His first entry was: 'Got up this morning at 7 o'clock.' He showed the entry to his mother and she, horror-stricken, said: 'Have you never been to school? 'Got up' indeed! such an expression. Does the sun get up? No, it rises.' And she scratched out 'Got up at 7' and wrote 'Rose at 7' in its place. That night the boy before retiring ended the entry for the day with the sentence: 'Set at 9.'"

Harsh Words, These
Milwaukee Journal: The Oshkosh Northwestern, stalwart, says "there is a chance for The Milwaukee Journal to get up an argument," in the assertion that it is not "the leading democratic paper." Bless you, man, The Journal does not pretend to be a leading or any other kind of a democratic paper. To be sure, it believes in democratic principles, but it does not know any party that stands for them. It is trying to do missionary work everywhere. We assure The Northwestern that this is much more satisfactory than is the case with papers like it, which was a halfbreed, abusing Spooner even to the point of bitterness, only to turn about and berate La Follette. We think The Northwestern should be content to enjoy its federal office without continually forcing the public to consider the price.

Where Stensland Is
Milwaukee Free Press: Paul O. Stensland, the Chicago crooked bank president, has gone to India. He was also seen a few days since in Madison, at which time he took the "woman in the case" for a ride with a horse and carriage. He is also supposed to be in hiding in Canada, and plans for his extradition are being carefully worked out. On Friday he was seen in Fort Worth, Tex., from which place he is believed to be planning to escape into Mexico; and the frontier is being guarded to prevent him. It is believed to be "practically certain" that he will be arrested if he tries to escape into Mexico, unless he is smuggled over by Chinamen. And so on and so forth. Meanwhile nobody knows anything about where Stensland is.

The "Darling" Racket Falls
Superior Telegram: The Shawano County Advocate is apparently not ambitious to be somebody's darling. In a recent issue it explains its attitude as follows: "Last week The Advocate received from Aug. Neddin, of Tigertown, republican candidate for clerk of the circuit court, an announcement. He requested the same published, but was very particular about the cost. He said: 'Please quote prices for one or two insertions of the enclosed announcement.' If you publish free of charge I shall call you a darling. If you charge too much I could not afford to have it published, so be good and your kindness will be appreciated." Now if we were young and handsome and did not have a family to support, and a pretty young school teacher was a candidate for superintendent of schools and wanted an announcement published on such conditions we would jump at the chance, but having a family to support we have to pass the opportunity of being a darling. The Advocate would like to give the Tigertown gentleman word of advice concerning politics.

The best and surest way to get rid of the pain of corns is to remove the corns. It can be easily done by applying our CORN LOOSENER PLASTER.
Three applications will actually loosen your corns so that, after soaking the feet, they can be easily and painlessly removed. They come out whole, roots and all, and all the pain is removed with them. Isn't it worth the price, 10c, to obtain relief and be able to walk in comfort?

If he ever expects to win out he cannot do so along that line. He will have to spend a little money and not be afraid to spend a cent with the newspapers. We have to pay help to set type and can't see why he should expect the newspapers to boost him for nothing. This item is not charged for, and perhaps Mr. Neddin will get more advertising out of it than from his regular notice. He cannot work the "darling" racket on the newspapers of Shawano county, however. The next time enclose a small check and it will do much more good."

BUSY DAYS FOR THE STREET COM.

CITY'S WORK OF FILLING UP RACEWAY ARCH.

COMMENCED THIS MORNING

Jackson Street Bridge Will Be Ready for Travel Next Week—Water Pipe Has Been Repaired.

Work preparatory to the filling up of the raceway arch under Milwaukee street from Baack's store to the King & Cowles and Nichols establishments across the way was commenced under the direction of Street Commissioner James Kennett today. The earth excavated from River street will be used. Over this arch at present shelters a foul and noisy pool of stagnant water there are eight feet of earth. The crown will be broken in with a chisel bar and enough sand dumped in to drive the water out. The portion lying south of the street, under the Norcross property, will be filled in after the city has finished its portion and one menace to the public health will then have been obliterated.

Other Work in Progress
On Milwaukee street on the west of the alleyway which runs alongside Frank Kimball's store a second catch-basin connected by a 10-inch tile with the original one on the east side is being placed to take care of the water which sometimes collects on that side of the street—and the single catch-basin on the southwest corner of Milwaukee and River streets has been converted into a double one. Kate Richter today filed two more notices of injury to the tune of $500 each for damage by the Five Points on July 28 and Aug. 8. She already has claims aggregating $1,800 against the city. This Five Points trouble is now in a fair way to be straightened out, it is loudly believed by the city officials. The railroad companies which have steadfastly refused to do anything about rectifying the untoward sewer conditions, there have been ordered to lower their tracks so that they may receive all the water from that low section. They will either have to comply or make terms with the city by fixing the clogged and inadequate sewers.

The Jackson Street Bridge
According to Mr. Sennott the work of decking the Jackson street bridge will probably be finished by the last of the week and the structure will be open for traffic again during the early part of next week. The Water Co. has repaired its broken pipe in that locality and Spring Brook again supplied. Mr. Watson is working under the direction of the street commissioner in building the curb in the Washington street washout. The latter's horse is out of commission with sore feet just at a time when he needs it most.

TERRIBLE TIDINGS FROM CALIFORNIA

Percy Northrup, Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Northrup of This City, Run Down and Killed by Train.
Percy Northrup, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Northrup, who reside at No. 7 South Academy street, who had been employed as brakeman on the Santa Fe road, fell under a freight train at Bakersfield, California, and died almost immediately as a result of his injuries. The terrible tidings reached this city in a telegram yesterday. Only meagre details were given. Deceased was a single man, thirty-four years of age. When he left Janesville he was considered one of the most promising engineers on the North-Western system. Had he lived he was soon to have taken a locomotive on the Santa Fe. Besides his parents he leaves one brother in this city to mourn his loss. The remains, which are now on their way east, are to be taken to Paw Paw, Michigan, for burial.

NORTH END JUNIORS SHOWED THE CUBS HOW TO PLAY BALL

Defeated Them This Morning in Hot Game—To Play Again Tomorrow Morning.
By a score of twenty to eleven the North End Juniors taught the Second Ward Cubs that what little they knew about baseball did not count this morning. Tomorrow they expect to further impress the Cubs by a second game at Eagle Park. The battery for the North Enders was Keating and O'Hara and for the Cubs Ward and Wilson.

Then There Was Silence.
"Dear friends," began a speaker at a meeting the other night, "I call you 'dear friends'; I won't call you ladies and gentlemen because, you see, I know you all so well."

"SPIKE" IRWIN MUST STAY OUT OF STATE

For Period of Five Years on Penalty of a Prison Term—Pleaded Guilty to Larceny Today.

James Irwin, sometimes called "Spike," is exiled from the state of Wisconsin for a period of five years. If he returns to Janesville within that time he will in all likelihood be sent to state's prison. Some weeks ago the person of an intoxicated passenger on board the steamer "Columba" was traced to Irwin's door and he appeared before Judge Fifield in municipal court this morning to answer to the charge of larceny. It appeared that Irwin is well as the victim was under the influence of liquor at the time and after some consideration the court decided upon payment of costs and the signing of an agreement to leave Wisconsin for five years by the prisoner, to adjourn the case. The court will appoint an attorney to appear from time to time and consent to the adjournment.

PROJECTS OF THE LOCAL ELECTRIC CO.

Cement Foundations for New Flumes at Monterey Plant Grounded—To Enlarge Heating Plant.

Having decided to enlarge its hot water heating system and extend its ramifications over a larger territory, the Janesville Electric Co. will abandon the plant in the rear of the Norcross block, establish headquarters at the new electric light establishment at the dam, and petition the council at the next regular meeting for permission to lay pipes on River street to a location about halfway between Milwaukee and Dodge streets. This latter work must be done at once in order that the paving may not be interfered with. Supp. P. H. Korst and Atty. M. G. Jeffris have interviewed a number of the aldermen and the right-of-way will doubtless be granted without objection or dissent. On Saturday Supp. H. A. Cleveland and his men succeeded in grounding the cement bottom for the two new flumes between the wheelhouse and the engine room at the Monterey plant. The work, which has been in progress since June, will now proceed rapidly and it will be only a matter of a few weeks when the two 250-horsepower wheels will be installed.

FALL FROM CHAIR HASTENED DEATH

Mrs. Patrick Cloughlin, Aged Nearly Eighty, Passed Away Late Yesterday Afternoon.

Mrs. Patrick Cloughlin, who had been ill for many weeks and who accidentally fell from her chair on the porch last Saturday and sustained a fractured hip, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Kennett, 260 South Franklin street, at half past five o'clock yesterday afternoon. Deceased was nearly eighty years old and owing to her advanced age she failed rapidly after the accident. She leaves one other daughter—Mrs. John Connell of Beloit. The burial will take place in that city tomorrow. The remains will be taken to Beloit tomorrow morning on the Interurban and services will be held at 9 o'clock in St. Thomas' Church. Father Ward of that city will officiate and the interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

INSPECTOR WALKER IN THE CITY AGAIN

Will Look Over All of the Postoffice Rural Routes and Work Will Require Month's Time.

Postoffice Inspector Judson P. Walker of Chicago has arrived here to make an inspection of all the rural routes in the county and attend to any other matters that may arise in connection with postoffice affairs. Mr. Walker, it may be remembered, laid out the original routes in this locality. He has been in the service many years. His present stay in Janesville and vicinity will extend over a period of three or four weeks.

TWO LEGAL HOLIDAYS IN IMMEDIATE JUXTAPosition

Labor Day Comes Sept. 3 and Primary Election Day on Sept. 4

This year, in succession, two legal holidays will be something of a novelty. Monday, September 3, is Labor Day, and public offices at least are expected to be closed. Tuesday, Sept. 4, is primary election day, declared by the primary election law to be a legal holiday. People living at a distance who have business in the county court or any of the other offices of the court house will do well to keep these holidays in mind and postpone their trips as the doors will be closed.

INCENDIARY AT WORK IN CITY LAST NIGHT?

Two Fires in Rooms Above Ray Lloyd Blacksmith Shop Arcused Suspicion of Chief Klein.

At 10:20 last evening the fire department was called out to attend to a blaze of mysterious origin in a small room, in the second story of the rear portion of the Ray Lloyd blacksmith shop on East Milwaukee street. The flames were promptly extinguished with chemicals. Charles Thompson and family had moved out of the place just three days before and the rooms having been unoccupied in the interim the theory of spontaneous combustion was advanced to explain the fire.

Incendary at Work
This theory was promptly abandoned, however, when the department was again called out at midnight to put out a second fire in the same locality and Chief Klein, making a survey of the premises, detected an unmistakable odor of kerosene. That both fires owed their origin to some incendiary who was prompted either by malice or an idle desire for excitement, seems a foregone conclusion. Officer Morrissey kept a weather eye on the building throughout the balance of the night, at the request of Chief Klein, but nothing suspicious came to his notice. The fire loss was about $150.

Spring Brook Horse Gave Out

The Spring Brook department's long run via Main street, made necessary by the impassable condition of the Jackson street bridge, was too much for one of the horses, which gave away and fell as the team reached the city park. The animal was only exhausted and was not seriously injured. Chief Klein gave orders that in the future such long distances should be covered on a fast trot and not on a run.

THEATRE PATRONS TO USE THE BLUFF ST. ENTRANCE.

Until Improvements of Main Entrance at the Myers Opera House Have Been Completed.

Theatre patrons, excepting those who go to the balcony, will be expected to use the bluff street exit as an entrance to the playhouse until the improvements now in progress at the main entrance have been completed. The plans of building a gradual incline from the outer walk to a couple of steps leading in the auditorium, proposed by the management, were only altered so as to dispense with the steps altogether and some additional delay in completing the improvements has necessarily resulted. However, everything will be shipshape again in the course of a week or two.

Three Grades of Husbands.

A woman who shall be nameless furnishes the following essay on husbands: "There are three kinds of husbands: The young husbands who make us unhappy because we are so jealous of them, the middle-aged husbands who break our hearts because they would rather make money or play golf than devote any attention to us; and the old husbands who sicken us with their silly objections whenever we turn to look at younger men."

He Could Take a Joke.

The other day a benevolent old gentleman was stopped by a tramp, who asked for money for a night's lodging. "Well, look here, my man," the old gentleman said, "what would you say if I offered you work?" "Bless yer life, sir," came the reply, "I wouldn't mind a bit; I can take a joke same as most people."

Malta-Vita

No Cooking—Ready to Eat

Malta-Vita, the only malted whole-wheat food, is a pure grain product, made entirely by machinery, never touched by hands from the beginning to the end of the manufacturing process, and made in the cleanest food factory in the world. It is the cleanest food, the most healthful, and delicious beyond comparison. It is easily digested; makes rich, red blood and gives strength to muscle, bone and brain.

Malta-Vita is baked crisp and brown, every little wafer flake a whole grain of malted wheat that simply melts in the mouth. There is nothing else quite so good to eat as Malta-Vita, served with milk or cream or fresh fruit.

It makes the ideal Summer breakfast. Always ready to eat. No cooking.

ANOTHER GERM DESTROYER

Herpicide is Death to Dandruff Germs

The germ burrows in the scalp, hatching up the cuticle in thin scales, called dandruff, or scurf, and digging at the root of the hair where it saps the hair's vitality. First comes brittle hair then lustreless and dead like hair, then falling hair, and finally baldness. Nine-tenths of the hair troubles are caused by dandruff. Without dandruff, hair will grow luxuriantly, as nature intended. "Herpicide" kills the dandruff germ leaving the hair to grow unhampered, as it does with the American Red man. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

"RUMMAGE" SALE

Men's 2-piece Outing Suits, sizes 33, 34 and 35, regular $8, $10 and $15 values, at.....

$3.89

We have been "rummaging" around throughout our immense stock and have gathered together all that is left of this season's stock—everything new and fresh. This great sale will be of such character as to attract the keenest attention of all close buyers. Regardless of previous price, regardless of cost—regardless of everything—we propose to get rid of all these goods. It matters not how much below cost we are compelled to go—the merchandise will be sold just the same. It's a big thing for you and we don't give it grudgingly. It is always good business at this period of the year to stand losses if by so doing you can rid your house of what you have on hand. That what we are doing.
